

Mr. Lindsey moved, seconded by Mrs. Coffey to receive and file the above noted reports and to publish any pertinent portions thereof in the Journal of Proceedings. Carried.

Mr. Augustini moved, seconded by Mr. Brown that the following resolution be reconsidered as follows: "I move to reconsider Local Law Intro Number 7 of 1994 upon its return to the Clerk by the County Executive with written objections.

The County Attorney explained that the resolution was now before the Legislature for reconsideration, however only one vote may be taken. Thirteen votes are required (in Broome County) to pass a Local Law on reconsideration following objection by the County Executive. While twelve votes are sufficient to override a veto of the County Executive (under the County Charter), the passage, objection and reconsideration of Local Laws is governed by NYS Laws and a slightly different procedure is used.
