Binghamton High School (Binghamton, NY).....36

Maine-Endwell High School (Endwell, NY).....56

Senior Kyle Gallagher scored a game-high 27 points to lead the Maine-Endwell Spartans to a 56-36 victory over the Binghamton Patriots in the opening game of the 22nd Mirabito STOP-DWI Holiday Classic, Saturday morning at the Broome County Veterans Memorial Arena.

Gallagher was 10-of-21 from the floor and added a team-high 10 rebounds and four assists. Senior Alec Wisniewski chipped in 14 points and five rebounds for the Spartans.

Sophomore Andre Hawkins scored all of his team-high 10 points in the second half to lead Binghamton. Junior Nick Snyder added eight points and a game-high 11 rebounds. Junior Anthony Weakland also scored eight points for the Patriots.

Maine-Endwell, who led from start to finish, used a decisive 12-0 run in the third quarter to break open the contest. The Spartans shot 52 percent in the second half to take its largest lead of the game (38-19) late in the third quarter.

After a brief flurry of baskets by Hawkins to pull Binghamton within seven (26-19), Maine-Endwell embarked on the game-changing run. Gallagher netted nine of the 12 points during the Spartan run helping Maine-Endwell take a 40-21 lead into the fourth quarter. The Patriots never pulled any closer than 14 in the final eight minutes as the Spartans cruised to the 20-point victory.

Gallagher led Maine-Endwell with 13 first-half points helping the Spartans stake out a 10-point halftime lead (21-11). Maine-Endwell forced 12 Binghamton turnovers in the first half as Gallagher scored nine of the Spartan's 11 points in the opening quarter. Gallagher also contributed six rebounds and three assists to M-E's cause during the first half.

The second quarter witnessed Snyder keep Binghamton within striking distance scoring six points, all coming in the paint. The 6-foot-4 Patriot big man also collected eight rebounds as Binghamton held a slim 23-22 rebounding advantage. However, turnovers and poor shooting (5-for-21) hampered Binghamton's offense. The Patriots limited the Spartans to 0-for-9 shooting from beyond the arc.

Maine-Endwell moves on to play in the championship game of the Regional Division I bracket Monday night at 7:15. Binghamton will play for third place of the Regional Division I bracket Sunday morning at 9:30 a.m.

Game Six

National Division

Christ The King (Middle Village, N.Y.).....70
St. Michael's College School (Toronto, Ontario).....68

Sophomore Tyrone Cohen laid in the game-winning basket with three seconds left to lift Christ the King to a 70-68 over St. Michael's College in a thrilling ending to day one of the 22nd Mirabito STOP-DWI Holiday Classic.

After St. Michael's Godwin Boahen hit a runner in the lane to even the game at 68 with 20 seconds remaining Christ the King scrambled to get a shot off before head coach Joe Arbitello called a timeout with six seconds left. Arbitello designed a perfect inbounds play as Bryler Paige found a cutting Cohen wide open for the game-winner.

Junior Travis Atson led the Royals with a monster double-double of 26 points and 14 rebounds, both of which were game highs. Sophomore Rawle Alkins added 15 points, six rebounds, four blocks and three assists giving an all-around effort for CTK. Royals 6-foot-10 senior Adonis Delarosa chipped in 10 points and 9 rebounds.

Boahen led St. Michaels with 18 points and five rebounds. Nelson Kaputo added 17 points while Danilo Djuricic chipped in 13 for the Blue Raiders.

Christ the King used a late 9-0 run in the third quarter and an 11-0 run midway through the fourth to erase a 13-point deficit early in the second half.

Atson was dynamic during the 11-0 run in the fourth scoring eight for CTK to hand the Royals 66-61 lead with just over three minutes to play. A driving layup by Marcus Layne increased CTK's cushion to five, 68-63, but St. Michael's continued to hang around. The Blue Raiders pulled within two with just over two minutes to play following a Kaputo three-point play. St. Michael's had multiple chances to tie the game at the free throw line before Boahen's runner eventual set up the late game heroics by Cohen.

Alkins open the half with two straight hoops and evened the game at 37. But two Djuricic three's coupled with three driving layups by Boahen aided a St. Michael's 17-4 run to go up 54-31 with 3:45 remaining in the third. The Royals responded with nine straight points capped by an Alkins two-handed slam. However, four straight points by Djuricic put St. Michael's up 58-50 heading into the fourth quarter.

The opening 16 minutes of play was a back-and-forth affair as the contest witnessed 13 lead changes and five ties. Christ the King gained the upper hand first with a triple by Alkins to give the Royals a 12-8 lead midway through the first quarter. However, a nice move in the lane by Kaputo gave St. Michael's a slim one-point lead late in the opening quarter. St. Michael's received back-to-back buckets from Boahen and senior Kaion Julien-Grant late in the quarter to take a 19-16 lead after eight minutes of play.

In the second quarter St. Michael's extended its lead to seven, the largest of the game, following back-to-back three-pointers by Kaputo and Boahen. However, a drive to lane by Alkins and a three-point play by Atson leveled the game at 25. Christ the King was able to regain the lead with just over two minutes left in the first half after six straight points by
