

2016 STOP-DWI Winter Classic

Day Two – December 3, 2016

Binghamton High School

Game Five

Howland Division I

Kennedy Catholic ( Somers, NY ).....	39
Nottingham ( Syracuse, NY ).....	37

Sophomore guard Aaron Davis drained a corner three as the shot clock expired with just over a minute to play handing Kennedy Catholic a 39-37 victory over Nottingham, Saturday afternoon in the 2016 STOP-DWI Winter Classic Howland Division at Binghamton High School. The Gaels ended the game on an 8-0 run to finish the tournament with a 1-1 record.

Kennedy Catholic was led by all-tournament selection AJ Morales, who scored a team-high 14 points. Senior center Jaz Burton was a force in the paint all day picking up a game-high 13 rebounds while adding seven points. Davis finished the day with eight points and two steals.

Senior Jevon Jones highlighted Nottingham’s performance with a game-high 17 points on 8-of-18 shooting to earn a position on the all-tournament team. The 6-foot-3 swingman was limited to just five second-half points missing a go ahead jumper with under 10 seconds to play. Nottingham also finished the tournament with a 1-1 record.

With the game tied at 30-30, Nottingham went on a 7-0 run ignited by a Jakair Sanchez triple. The Bulldogs closed the run after a steal by Mohamed Abdi and breakaway layup from Malcom Sanchez with 3:30 remaining. However, Kennedy and Morales responded with a three from the top of the key and a pair of free throws before Davis’ heroics.

Both teams played to a stalemate in the third quarter scoring seven points apiece as Nottingham maintained its one-point edge heading into the final period. An offensive rebound and putback by Brian Szpindor gave the Gaels a brief 27-26 lead, but a pull-up jumper by Jones regained the lead for the Bulldogs, who held a 28-27 advantage at the end of third quarter.

In the first half, Nottingham staked a four-point lead after the opening eight minutes thanks to 12 first-quarter points from Jones. Kennedy Catholic attempted to utilize the three-ball to stay in the game, but hit just 1-of-11 shots from beyond the arc in the half. Morales netted seven points the lead the Gaels.

Kennedy took an 11-8 lead midway through the first quarter behind five quick points from Morales. Nottingham employed a full-court pressure defense that resulted in six points off turnovers to take a 14-13 advantage. Jones netted a beautiful floater in the lane as time expired in the opening quarter to provide the Bulldogs with an 18-14 lead.

The second quarter didn’t witness much offense as Kennedy Catholic outscored Nottingham, 6-3, to pull within one at the break, 21-20. A three-pointer by Sanchez gave Nottingham its largest lead of the half, but those were the only points the Bulldogs could muster in the second quarter.

Game Seven

Howland Division I

West Genesee ( Camillus, NY ).....	81
Binghamton ( Binghamton, NY ).....	66

Senior guard Malik Zachery poured in a game-high 31 points to lead West Genesee past Binghamton, 81-66, in the Howland Division finale of the 2016 STOP-DWI Winter Classic, Saturday night at Binghamton High School. Zachery averaged 29 points per game to earn Most Valuable Player honors and lead the Wildcats to the only 2-0 record in the tournament.

Also reaching double-figures and earning all-tournament recognition for West Genesee were senior Jack Bova (20 points) and sophomore Lucas Sutherland (15 points). Senior Nate Phillips was also named to the all-tournament team for the Wildcats.

Binghamton was led by senior guard Muhammad Trammell, who netted a team-high 14 points going 4-for-7 from beyond the arc. Sophomores Tyshawn High and Isaiah Rogers both recorded double-figure efforts with 12 points apiece.

The Patriots burst out of the gate in the first quarter going on an 8-0 run to open the game after converting pair of West Genesee turnovers into fast-break layups. The Wildcats responded, however, with a 33-6 run to close out the opening eight minutes of play. Binghamton had no answer for the three-ball by West Genesee, who connected on 6-of-9 three-pointers in the first quarter. Bova netted four of the six triples in the opening frame while Zachery scored a pivotal 16 points.

West Genesee opened the second quarter on a 10-3 spurt to extend its lead to 30, but Binghamton ended the first half on a 14-4 run to trim deficit to, 54-34, thanks to a buzzer-beating three-quarter court heave from Devin Tyler. Rogers led the Patriots with nine first-half points.

Binghamton outscored West Genesee in the second half, 32-27, but was never able to get within striking distance. The Patriots cut the Wildcat lead to 12 with under four minutes to play after High drained a pretty floater in the lane. West Genesee quickly responded as Sutherland deposited a ferocious one-hand jam to quiet any momentum from the Patriots.

West Genesee shot a blistering 66 percent from the floor in the first half (18-for-30), but finished the game shooting 46 percent after the reserves played much of the third quarter. The Wildcats finished the game 9-of-27 from three-point land while the Patriots converted on six of their 17 three-point attempts. West Genesee was strong on the glass, outrebounding Binghamton 42-35, highlighted by Sutherland's game-high 12 boards.

Tarricone Division II

Susquehanna Valley ( Conklin, NY ).....	44
Seton Catholic Central ( Binghamton, NY ).....	50

Seton Catholic Central used an 11-0 run in the fourth quarter to turn a tie game into a STOP-DWI Winter Classic championship, beating Susquehanna Valley 50-44 at the 24th annual tournament.

Junior Peter Hartrick scored five of his 14 points during that run. He also finished with nine rebounds to lead the Saints and earn a spot on the all-tournament team. Joining him on the all-tournament team was Most Valuable Player Leo Gallagher, who scored a team-high 15 points.

Susquehanna Valley was led by all-tournament performers Austin Haskell and Jordan McGahy. Haskell registered a double-double of 15 points and 11 rebounds while McGahy also chipped in 15 points.

Susquehanna Valley responded with a 5-0 run in the fourth quarter, but Seton Catholic drained four clutch free throws down the stretch to seal the victory. The Sabers dominated the glass, outrebounding the Saints 43-25, but the visitors were unable to overcome their 25 turnovers.

After a back-and-forth first quarter, Susquehanna Valley utilized a pivotal 14-3 run to end the half with a 25-18 lead.

The Saints opened the second half on a 7-0 run to regain the lead, but Susquehanna Valley responded with a McGahy jumper to tie the game at 34 after three quarters of play.

That's when the Saints exploded for the 11-0 run to take control and they never looked back.

Eighth-grader Marcus Dyes contributed nine points, five rebounds and four steals. Sophomore Tommy Dempsey added six points and a team-high four assists.
