Seton Catholic Central

Game Two

Tarricone Division II

Chittenango .....	54
Union-Endicott. ....	40

Chittenango ended the game on a 17-3 run, spurred by 12 points by Zach Falkenburg's 12 points during that stretch, to down the Union-Endicott Tigers 54-40.

Falkenburg led all scorers with 29 points.

The Bears built an early 12-2 lead thanks to back to back 3 pointers by Dylan Voutsinas. Voutsinas and Falkenburg combined for 14 of the Bears first 17 points, en route to a 17-6 lead.

The Bears extended that lead to 26-8 thanks to back to back 3 point plays by Voutsinas and Matt Lanphear. The Tigers would respond with back to back 3 pointers by Matthew Polemni, but the Tigers still trailed 28-16 at the break.

The Tigers battled back throughout the 3rd quarter, paced by the offense and rebounding by Matthew Armstrong (6 points in the 3rd). Sadeeq Terry hit two free throws to cut the Bears lead to 32-30.

In the 4th quarter, Terry hit a stepback jumper to tie the game at 37. It was all Bears after that.

Voutsinas finished with 12 points for Chittenango.

Union-Endicott was led by Polemeni's 12 points. Armstrong had 10 points and 14 rebounds for the Tigers.

Union-Endicott will play Walton in the consolation game of the Tarricone Division on Saturday at 5:00 pm. That will be the second game of the day, following the Aldo Rossi Memorial Police game. Chittenango will face Seton in the championship game of the Tarricone division at 7:00 pm.

Game Four

Tarricone Division II

Walton .....	53
Seton Catholic Central ( Binghamton, NY ).....	58

Peter Hartrick scored 23 points, including 4 free throws down the stretch as host Seton outlasted visiting Walton, 58-53.

Hartrick added 12 rebounds for the Saints.

Walton to tie the score. Seton answered as Tayler Rumpel hit a lay-in and then threw a lob pass to Hartrick who got the hoop and the foul for a 39-35 lead.

Later in the 3rd, Warriors down 8 again, but stormed back as Dylan Jacob got a steal and found Shane Merwin for a lay-in. After a Saints turnover, Alex Tweedie hit a 3 from the corner to tie the game at 46.

Seton would answer. Leo Gallagher (9 points) drove for a basket and was fouled. He would make the free throw and the Saints regained the lead, which they would never give up. The Saints would hit 6 free throws in the final 40 seconds to hold on for the win.

The Saints will advance to the Championship game of the Tarricone Division. They will play the Chittenango Bears, a winner over Union-Endicott in the first game. That game will be at 7:00 pm on Saturday. Walton will play Union-Endicott at 5:00 pm on Saturday. Both of those games will come after the Aldo Rossi Memorial Police game, which tips off at 3:00 pm.
