Game 6

Tarricone Division II

Union-Endicott.....	67
Walton	70

Alex Tweedie hit 2 free throws down the stretch and Dylan Jacob came up with a steal as time expired to help Walton hold on for a 70-67 win over Union-Endicott in the Tarricone Division of the STOP DWI Winter Classic.

Entering the 4th quarter down by 10, Sadeeq Terry put the Tigers on his back, scoring 7 of his game high 26 points, including a 3-point basket with under a minute left to bring the Tigers within 1 point.

Tweedie hit the front end of a 1 and 1, to give Walton a 2-point lead. Matt Polemni attempted a 3-point shot for the Tigers but it was no good. Tweedie got the rebound and was fouled. He made the first, but missed the second, giving U-E one last chance. However, Jacob got a steal and the Warriors held on to take 3rd place in the Tarricone Division.

The Tigers took a 19-12 lead after the first quarter thanks to back to back 3-pointers by Polemeni. Walton would respond in the 2nd quarter as Tweedie hit back to back 3-pointers to give the Warriors a 37-33 halftime lead.

Tweedie continued his hot streak, scoring the Warriors first 5 points in the 3rd. He scored 11 straight to give Walton a 41-35 lead, but Terry would answer with 8 straight of his own to bring the Tigers within 4. Walton would then go on a 8-2 run, ending with a Tweedie jumper.

Terry ended with 26 points, 5 rebounds and 5 assists and was named to the All-Tournament team. Polemeni ended with 13 points and 15 rebounds for U-E.

Tweedie led Walton with 18 points and 7 rebounds. Teammate Dylan Jacob had 16 points and 5 assists. Jacob was also named to the All-Tournament team.

Steele Hamme was honored with the Thomas Schwan award, given to the unheralded player who represents the “true heart and soul” of his team.

Game 8

Tarricone Division II

Chittenango.....	48
Seton Catholic Central	51

Leo Gallagher hit a 3-point shot with 44 seconds left and a free throw with 8 seconds remaining as Seton Catholic Central outlasted visiting Chittenango 51-48.

The Bears had a chance to tie at the buzzer, but Zach Falkenburg’s 3-point attempt fell short.

Gallagher led the Saints with 15 points. Falkenburg led all scorers with 22 points, 19 of them coming in the first half.

Falkenburg came out hot in the first half, scoring 19 of his team’s 24 points. The Saints ended the first half on a 5-0 run.

In the 3rd quarter, with the game tied, Matt Lanphear got a rebound and basket to put the Bears up 37-35. The Saints responded.

Marcus Dyes hit a jumper, followed by Tyler Rumpel’s 3-point basket to put the Saints up 3.

The 4th quarter saw back and forth action throughout, with neither team building more than a 4-point lead.

With the Saints clinging to a 2-point lead, Peter Hartrick blocked a shot. Gallagher got the rebound and got fouled and made 1 of 2 free throws for the final margin.

Leo Gallagher and Peter Hartrick were named to the All-Tournament team for Seton. They were joined by Zach Falkenburg from Chittenango. Marcus Dyes, a freshman from Seton, was named the Tournament MVP.
