BROOME COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE PRESS RELEASE

Arrests for Violation of Sex Offender Registry and Bail Jumping

On March 23, 2023, members of the Detective Division of the Broome County Sheriff's Office arrested Patrick J. Logan, age 63, of Broome County, after an investigation into him failing to register his address as a sex offender, which is required by New York State Law.

Patrick J. Logan was charged with the following:

- Failure to Register Under the Sex Offender Registration Act - Second Offense, a Class D Felony

Logan was taken to the Central Arraignment Part Court at the Broome County Correction Facility for arraignment.

On March 24, 2024, members of the Broome County Sheriff's Office arrested Justin M. Terenzi, age 34, of Berkshire, NY. Terenzi failed to appear for a court date in January of 2023 after being previously arraigned on a charge.

Justin M. Terenzi was charged with the following:

- Bail Jumping in the 3rd Degree, a Class A Misdemeanor

Terenzi was taken to the Central Arraignment Part Court at the Broome County Correction Facility for arraignment.
