** UPDATED RELEASE ****

July 27, 2022

On Tuesday, July 26, 2022, at about 3:00 am the Broome County Sheriff's Office responded to the abandoned Vestal Hills Country Club located at 3123 Webb Road in the Town of Binghamton for a report of a man shot by an arrow from a compound bow. Savannah Perry and Carson Vanco, both 21 years old, both of Endicott, NY, were both taken into custody during the investigation.

The subsequent investigation determined that 23-year-old Bayso Vannavongsa of Oliver Street, Binghamton had been using the abandoned country club to store property including firearms. All parties, Vannavongsa, Perry, and Vanco were known to each other. Their relationship began to deteriorate culminating in Vanco ambushing Vannavongsa at the country club by shooting him with a compound bow and arrow. The investigation determined that Vanco and Perry conspired together to ambush Vannavongsa and assault him.

Upon searching the abandoned property, a small cache of weapons was located in a building. Property consisting of five rifles, one sawed-off shotgun, one BB gun, and two handguns were seized. The compound bow used to assault Vannavongsa was located and seized. Additional property, believed to be stolen, including a chainsaw, a dirt bike, a generator, and various tools were located and seized. Vannavongsa was found to possess approximately 24 grams of methamphetamine on his person during the investigation.

As a result of the investigation the following people were charged with the listed offenses:
